hapihour.org congratulates

Kartika Review on its inaugural issue.

We're proud to support you.

Other is a book project led by Eddy Zheng, who was recently released from prison and immigration detention after more than two decades behind bars. This anthology of work by Asian and Pacific Islander (API) prisoners is the first book to highlight the unique stories and perspectives of this growing prisoner population in the U.S. In total, 22 talented writers, poets, and artists have contributed to this anthology, covering topics such as the factors that led to their incarceration, the cruelty that occurs in prisons and immigration detention jails, and the harsh reality of deportation that awaits many API prisoners. Other includes a preface by Helen Zia. The book is co-edited by Ben Wang, designed by Joy Liu, RevoluXinDesigns.com, and is a project of the Asian Prisoner Support Committee (APSC).

Overall net proceeds generated from the sale of the book will go towards disaster relief aid and prisoner support work.

Locus Arts is an all-volunteer organization of Asian American artists and arts supporters dedicated to promoting community and consciousness through the arts.

Locus Arts is a space that showcases the music, theatre, performing, literary and visual arts of the Asian Pacific American community. We believe in: pan APA artists and inclusive audiences, a community supporting artists and the artists supporting a community, a physical space for creative collaboration and face-to-face connection. We seek to nurture and cultivate young emerging APA artists by providing a physical space to develop, rehearse, perform and display their works.
