

EDITOR BIOS

Editor-in-Chief

SUNNY WOAN graduated with a J.D. and a certificate in Public Interest and Social Justice Law, emphasis in Critical Race Theory. Ms. Woan has been or will be published in the Santa Clara Law Review, Cal. Western Law Review, Washington & Lee's Journal of Civil Rights and Social Justice, and Temple University's Journal of Science, Technology, and Environmental Law.

Fiction Editors

SARAH LIN obtained her degree in Creative Writing with an emphasis in Fiction from Binghamton University. She currently works as a copywriter in the advertising department of Tor Books, a publisher of genre fiction. On the side, she proofreads, copyedits, writes back cover copy for novels in assorted genres, and details her eat-ventures at www.saltysavorysweet.blogspot.com.

DENIS WONG has worked in the editorial departments of various publishing companies, including Bedford, Freeman & Worth, Random House, and Tor Books. He has also been, at one time or another, the Small Press Book Buyer at Baker & Taylor, and a Production Manager for Watson-Guptill Publications. Mr. Wong has edited short story collections, non-fiction, genre fiction, and literary fiction.

Poetry Editor

TANGIE RAINES is a J.D. candidate who worked as a museum curator and editor for an underground arts magazine prior to entering law school. Her art has been featured at exhibits in the Museum of Modern Art in New York City. She is also an award-winning poet who wrote and published poetry for over 7 years.

KARTIKA  REVIEW

ISSUE TWO, SPRING 2008

Essays Editors

JASON WONG is a Social Studies concentrator at Harvard University, and working on graduating college with a teaching credential in the humanities. Mr. Wong is a contributing writer for both the Harvard Political Review and The Harvard Crimson. He publishes a blog, mostly for posterity, at jjwongsf.blogspot.com.

Managing Editor

BEN HWANG is currently employed with a Fortune 500 corporation and is also involved in the financial software startup, Firelace. When not working on corporate strategy, this entrepreneur is heavily involved in local community efforts including co-founding and running the ConvergeSouth conference. He contributes to a number of online publications as well as writes in his personal blog, LUX.ET.UMBRA, at <http://life.firelace.com>

KARTIKA  REVIEW

ISSUE ONE, WINTER 2007